MISSION OF
LA SALLE UNIVERSITY

La Salle University, dedicated in the traditions of the Christian Brothers to excellence in teaching and to concern for both ultimate values and for the individual values of its students, is a private Roman Catholic university committed to providing a liberal education of both general and specialized studies.

MISSION OF LA SALLE
UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS

La Salle University is a Roman Catholic institution of higher education with traditions of the De La Salle Christian Brothers. In that framework, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and Recreation of La Salle University is committed to both the spirit and principles set forth by NCAA, Atlantic 10 Conference, Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and La Salle University regulatory guidelines. La Salle University is dedicated to the fair and equitable treatment of all students and staff.

The Athletic Department, through its intramural and intercollegiate programs, enables and encourages all students to participate in a wide variety of sports at many levels of competition. Values such as leadership, diligence, determination, and teamwork are emphasized. Good sportsmanship from its athletes and fans are supported.

The University strives to operate its athletic programs within the confines of a fiscally sound plan at a level of intercollegiate competition that is consistent with its philosophical objectives.

La Salle University seeks to join other institutions with the like commitments to institutional integrity, academic excellence, and to service to the community.

WHY WE ARE THE EXPLORERS

La Salle University's nickname — The Explorers — was erroneously bestowed by a sports writer covering a La Salle football game on campus in the early 1930's. He thought that the school was named after the famed French explorer of North America. In reality, the school was named after St. John Baptist de La Salle, the French educator and founder of the Christian Brothers. Despite the error, the nickname has remained.

HARTFORD — This was a matchup made in basketball coaches' heaven. There was La Salle, a run-and-gun-and-run-some-more team that averages 23 three-point shots a game and plays a pressure defense, playing Southern Mississippi, a run-and-gun team that can't shoot the three and can't protect the ball very well. La Salle Coach Speddy Muscarello has teams out in a 2-3 zone that he packed in to neutralize Clarence Weathermon, the Metro Conference Player of the Year, and 40 minutes later the Explorers had a 60-40, 79-63 victory in an NCAA first-round game. —Bobbie K. PHILADELPHIA BIG 5

The Philadelphia Big 5 A Philly Tradition

On November 23, 1954 the administration at the five major Universities in the Philadelphia area agreed to formulate a partnership between their athletic departments. They agreed to participate in a men's basketball round robin, the "City Series", at the Palestra on the University of Pennsylvania's campus. The Big 5 was born. For 50 years, this partnership has remained intact and defines Philadelphia's collegiate sports tradition, with heated rivalries and fierce competition on the court, partnership and camaraderie off the court. The Philadelphia Big 5 even beat out Rocky Balboa to be named the City's "Best Sports Tradition" in the Philadelphia Daily News!

In a city that is passionate about their sports teams, The Philadelphia Big 5 is the embodiment of collegiate sports...it's the 8,700 fans that repeatedly fill the most storied basketball building in the country, the Palestra... it's about earning bragging rights when your school wins the City Series... it's some of the most personable and successful coaches in the business... it's students showing up an hour before the game waiting to erupt when their team takes the floor...it's the look on a freshman's face when they get thrown into their first City Series game... it's student athletes collecting canned goods for the poor, mentoring our city's youth, and holding clinics for young players...it's reaching countless fans and alums with something good, something wholesome, something historic.

LASALLE IN THE BIG 5

ATLANTIC 10 CONFERENCE

On March 2, 1975, the idea of what is now the Atlantic 10 Conference was conceived. What started as an eight-school, men's basketball-only affiliation has grown into a 14-university, 21-sport league that is universally hailed as one of the best conferences in the country. That growth and prominence is a direct result of the ideals and commitments of the member institutions of the Atlantic 10 - the University of Dayton, Duquesne University, Fordham University, The George Washington University, La Salle University, University of Massachusetts, University of North Carolina at Charlotte, University of Rhode Island, University of Richmond, St. Bonaventure University, Saint Joseph's University, Saint Louis University, Temple University, and Xavier University.

The presidents and chancellors of Atlantic 10 institutions have made a strong commitment to making the academic and athletics equation work. Over the years, the league membership has strived to better recognize the academic accomplishments of its student-athletes. In doing so, the Atlantic 10, under the leadership of commissioner Linda Bruno, instituted the Commissioner's Honor Roll, which cites every Atlantic 10 student-athlete with a 3.5 grade point average or better. Over 1,050 student-athletes were named to the Fall 2005 Honor Roll and over 1,070 were named to the Spring 2006 Honor Roll. The league sponsors Academic All-Conference teams in each of its sports and honors one student-athlete per sport as the A-10 Student-Athlete of the Year. In 2005-06, over 170 student-athletes earned Academic All-Conference recognition.

In addition, the league names a male and female Scholar-Athlete of the Year in each A-10 sport. The Atlantic 10 also provides post-graduate scholarship grants to qualified student-athletes.

The Atlantic 10 Conference, with a total population of nearly 73 million people within its geographic footprint of eight states and the District of Columbia, will crown champions in 21 sports this season: baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, field hockey, men's golf, women's lacrosse, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's rowing, men's and women's soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming & diving, men's and women's tennis, and women's volleyball.

WHAT IS THE ATLANTIC 10?

What is the Atlantic 10? The Atlantic 10 is made up of 14 schools with a rich history of success on the hardwood. Atlantic 10 teams are frequent visitors to both the NCAA Tournament and the NIT and are consistently nationally ranked. The A-10 is also a breeding ground for future NBA players. In the past 10 years alone, 33 A-10 players have made their way to the promised ground that is the NBA.

Charlotte — The 49'ers made their Atlantic 10 debut in 2005-06 with a second-place finish, a 19-13 record and an NIT bid. Charlotte was ranked 18th in the nation in 2005 and is coming off back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances.

Dayton — The Flyers have been repeat visitors to both the NCAA Tournament and the NIT, making five consecutive postseason appearances from 2000 to 2004. In 2001, Dayton advanced to the third round of the NIT. The Flyers were ranked in the Top 25 three times since 2000, peaking at No. 16 in 2003.

George Washington made it to the post-season every year from 1995 to 1999, and earned an NIT bid in 2004. The Colonials have been ranked in the Top 25 three times since 1996.

La Salle — Steven Smith was signed by the Philadelphia 76'ers bringing the number of Explorers to play in the NBA in the last ten years to an impressive total of six. Smith also earned his second straight Atlantic 10 Player of the Year award in 2006.

Camby, along with teammate Lou Roe, went on to play in the NBA. UMass has seen postseason action four times and has been ranked in the Top 25 in three seasons since 1996.

Rhode Island — The Rams reached the Elite Eight in 1998 and during a stretch of three-consecutive NCAA bids. Rhode Island was also selected to the NIT three times since 1996. Rhode Island was also the home of current NBA player Cuttino Mobley. The Rams have also been residents of the Top 25 twice in the past ten years.

Richmond — The Spiders have seen postseason action five times in the past ten years, including every season from 2001 to 2004. Their last NCAA tournament appearance came in 2004. The Spiders have also seen alum Johnny Newman play in the NBA.

St. Bonaventure — The Bonnies made three consecutive postseason appearances from 2000 to 2002, earning an NCAA Tournament bid in 2000. Combined with its 1998 NIT appearance, St. Bonaventure saw postseason action in four out of five seasons. Over the past ten seasons, the Bonnies have seen two alums play in the NBA: J.R. Bremer and David Vanterpool.

Saint Joseph's — The Hawks were ranked #1 and reached the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament in 2003-04. Starters Delonte West and Jameer Nelson also were drafted by NBA teams in the ensuing summer. The Hawks have played in either the NCAA or NIT tournaments seven times in the last ten years. They have also been ranked in the Top 25 five times since 1996.

Saint Louis — This will be the Billikens second season in the A-10. They have seen Larry Hughes play professionally in the NBA. They have seen postseason action four times since 1998.

Mardy Collins became the seventh Owl to enter the NBA in that span when he was drafted in the summer of 2005. The Owls have been ranked in the Top 25 in the Associated Press poll five times since 1996, peaking at No. 5 in 1999.

Xavier — Won four games in the post season to win the Atlantic 10 and earn a trip to the NCAA Tournament. They also reached the Elite Eight in 2004, part of a stretch of four-straight NCAA appearances and eight-straight post-season berths. In 2003, Xavier's David West was named national Player of the Year, and went on to play in the NBA along with seven other Musketeers. STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

A SOLID STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING PROGRAM IS IMPERATIVE IN THE COMPETITIVE WORLD OF COLLEGE ATHLETICS. A CRITICAL COMPONENT TO ON-COURT SUCCESS IS THE WORK THAT IS PUT IN OUTSIDE THE LINES.

La Salle University's Strength and Conditioning Program is designed to maximize the student-athlete's performance. This is accomplished through the use of orthopedically safe, physiologically sound exercises and comprehensive total body training.

By systematically and progressively overloading the muscles trained and holding each athlete accountable for each repetition of each exercise of every workout, the program ensures consistent gains in strength and power.

The focus is on teaching the athlete to produce a maximal effort repeatedly for a given period of time and proprioceptive skill, one's ability to control their body in space, not how much weight an athlete can lift for one repetition.

The program maximizes the time spent in and out of the weight room, preparing the athletes for competition by making the workouts specific and purposeful so that they are a means to an end and not an end in and of themselves.

PROJECT TEAMWORK The La Salle Athletic Department upholds the University's mission of service through Project TeamWork. Project TeamWork is a youth outreach and community service project sponsored by La Salle University's Division of Intercollegiate Athletics. Project TeamWork utilizes La Salle student-athletes and coaches as mentors and role models to youth who need academic, social, and/or emotional support. Student-athletes must meet program criteria and have an interest in helping children in the local community. Student-athletes also volunteer their time to tutor area youth in cooperation with the La Salle Mentoring Program. For four straight years Project Teamwork has been recognized for excellence by the National Consortium for Athletics and Society.

Project TeamWork programs include:

Campus Visitations - Campus visits are arranged to bring youth to the La Salle campus to experience college life and to make educational attainment a goal.

Clinics and Workshops - Many athletic teams sponsor or participate in clinics which teach techniques and principles of their sport.

Explorer Kids - Corporate and individual levels of sponsorship allow children to attend athletic events and be recognized for their accomplishments.

HEAD COACH JOHN GIANNINI

In just his second season as La Salle University's head men's basketball coach, Dr. John Giannini led the Explorers to their most wins (18) in 14 years and a third place finish in the Atlantic 10 Conference—the school's highest status since it joined the league for the 1995-96 season. The 18-10 finish also set precedents for most Atlantic 10 wins in a season (10) most Atlantic 10 road wins in a single season (4) and delivered a winning season to the La Salle community for the first time since the 1992-93 season.

Along the way Giannini and the Explorers notched the school's first win all-time at Xavier's Cintas Center, witnessed a sell-out on their home court at Tom Gola Arena for the first time in four seasons and won the longest game in school history—a four-overtime, 107-106 win at Central Connecticut. They also snapped a four-year Big 5 losing streak, ended Massachusetts' 12-game home winning streak and beat the University of Dayton for the first time in 11 games.

For his efforts, Giannini was named to the Jim Phelan Award list for National Coach of the Year.

On August 23, 2004, La Salle University introduced Dr. John Giannini as the 18th head coach in the 74-year history of Explorer men's basketball.

The late-summer appointment negated any recruiting efforts, leaving Coach Giannini with a team consisting of only seven available scholarship players for most of the season.

This short-handed team showed consistent improvement, going 5-5 in its last 10 games, ending Massachusetts' season in the first round of the Atlantic 10 Tournament and notching victories over Xavier, Fordham, and Richmond before taking Xavier to the wire in the A-10 quarterfinals.

Notable among the victories were a few milestones including: La Salle's first victory at Rhode Island, the school's first win over a PAC-10 opponent (USC) in nearly 20 years and the Explorers' first win all-time at Richmond on February 9th also marked the coach's 300th career victory.

Giannini came to Philadelphia after an impressive eight-year run at the University of Maine where he built the Black Bears into a perennial force in the America East Conference. During his tenure, Giannini compiled the best record of any coach in UMaine history by going 125-111 with a pair of 20-win seasons, five trips to the America East semifinals or better, and appearances in the AEC's championship in game two of his last three seasons in Orono. The two 20-win campaigns are the only two on record in program history.

"We are very pleased that our search for a head coach yielded Dr. John Giannini," said La Salle Athletic Director Dr. Thomas Brennan. "He is not only a great basketball coach but he also has the background and the character that we want to see out of the coach that will head our program. One of the things that really impressed us was his record and ability to build and sustain a program. We were also very pleased with his ability to manage a wide array of issues related to the development of student-athletes."

Over his last six seasons, after having two years of recruiting, he has accumulated more wins than any other coach in the conference with a record of 107-61. Giannini's Black Bear teams also notched major road wins at Providence, Marquette, Northwestern and St. Louis.

"John Giannini has earned respect as a coach and as a person wherever he has been," said La Salle President Brother Michael McGinniss. "We welcome John to the La Salle family with every confidence that he is a good fit for our University. He recognizes, and believes in, the prominent place that values and academics have at La Salle."

Giannini's knack for winning began much closer to the Philadelphia area, however, having spent seven seasons as head coach at Rowan University in nearby Glassboro, NJ. During his run as the Profs head coach, he amassed a 168-38 record and a Division III National Championship in 1996 with a team that went 28-4. His Rowan teams won 20 or more game in all but one of his seven seasons—the lone exception was a 17-11 run in his first season at the helm (1989-90). Once again, after recruiting a roster of his own players, Giannini had an amazing 110-12 record during his last four seasons.

Besides the national championship, his Rowan teams made two other appearances in the NCAA Division III Final Four.

Before becoming the head coach at Rowan, Giannini served on Lou Henson's staff at the University of Illinois from 1987-89. In his two seasons as a graduate assistant, the Illini made two trips to the NCAA Tournament including a Final Four appearance in 1989 with a team that went 31-5 in the regular season.

He also assisted at Parkland Community College (Champaign, IL) and North Texas.

The Chicago, IL native (Fenwick High) earned his bachelor of arts degree in psychology from North Central College (Naperville, IL) in 1984 and his masters in physical education with a specialization in sports psychology from North Texas in 1986. "Dr. John" also earned a doctorate in kinesiology with a specialization in sports psychology from Illinois 1992.

Giannini's ties to the Philadelphia area are considerable, having recruited largely from the region both at Rowan and while building the program at Maine.

Coach Giannini's wife Donna gave birth to their oldest daughter Brianna (13) at Philadelphia's Methodist Hospital. The Giannini's also have a younger daughter Jamie (8).

Q/A Coach, your 2005-06 team snapped the streak of losing seasons for La Salle. How does that accomplishment rank on your list of career achievements? While I think having a winning season was very important to the program, I can't list it as 'my accomplishment'. Last year's team had great team chemistry, a clear understanding of the role definition of each player and consistent effort. The program needed a winning season and our players did that and also finished third in the Atlantic 10.

Q/A Last year's success was due in large part to the contributions of the seniors, in particular Steven Smith's decision to stay at La Salle. In the long term how important will Steven, Jermaine Thomas and Lewis Fadipe's impact on the program be viewed? I do not believe that people will ever forget the accomplishment of that team. {The players} were the one's that broke the streak and turned it around. Steven Smith will forever be remembered as one of the school's greatest players, Jermaine Thomas will be remembered as a 1000-point scorer and an outstanding guard and Lewis Fadipe will be remembered as a great person who played a valuable role in this team's accomplishments. It is important to remember that for 40 years La Salle was one of the greatest basketball programs in America. The alumni and the fans of this program are eager to see that brought back.

Q/A This incoming class of recruits may very well be the deepest and most talented in modern La Salle basketball history. How soon do you feel it will be until they make an impact? We will feel very good about this class at some point during their freshman year. It may be in the first game or the tenth, or the twentieth or somewhere in between, but we expect them to play extremely well in their first year. Then, we will have the satisfaction of knowing that we will have them together as a group for a long time.

Q/A The fall trip to Ottawa is an interesting venture and the first international trip for La Salle men's hoops in over 20 years. Explain the decision to take the trip and what you hope to accomplish. This is just a major year of transition in which we lost some proven, veteran players. We will field five freshman and a team with a lot of inexperience while trying to implement a new style of play. To get a head start with one week of practice and four games we should be able to learn a lot about the team and what we can expect out of our players. It often takes teams four or five games into a season to really figure out how your team is going to play best. Perhaps, by going on this tour, we can eliminate that growth period and have a better idea of how we are going to play right at the start of the season.

Q/A There are only two seniors on the squad and only one of them has been a regular starting. Where do you think this team's leadership will come from? I expect Darnell Harris, Mike St. John and Sean Neal to really set an example. Darnell and Mike have shown that they are very important players on a good Atlantic 10 team. Now it is time for them to challenge the others to do the same. Sean Neal is the epitome of an unselfish team player who knows how to push his teammates hard. I would not be surprised to see Sean contribute largely to a few big wins this year.

Q/A With your first complete recruiting cycle under your belt and an impressive crop of players to show for it – do you think you finally are completely “settled in” and have the program moving in the direction you want it to. Not completely. I do not think I will feel that way until we have an experienced, talented and successful team returning to campus in the fall. Clearly this is an important transition year for the program but only after a solid year with our recruits and having experienced success will I feel ‘settled in’.

Q/A What is the most memorable moment of your first two seasons at La Salle? I think there are a couple of things that immediately stand out. Winning our first Big 5 game in four years over Temple in the Gola Arena was a special moment.

I also feel that winning over Saint Louis on Senior Day in Gola Arena was memorable because the seniors got to experience a win in front of a sold-out crowd in their final home game and it also clinched a third-place finish in the Atlantic 10 which is the highest in school history. In both cases I felt especially happy for the seniors because it was wonderful to see the arena packed and the great fan support showing them how appreciated their efforts and careers were to the supporters of this program.

Q/A The roster has eight players ranging from 6'5 to 6'8. This appears to be the exactly how you like to build your roster. Explain why, and what the advantages are of this approach. I have always felt that we need to do two things to become one of the best in the Atlantic 10 and recognized nationally; field a team with a lot of talent and develop a unique style of play.

There is a much stronger pool of talent in that 6'5-6'8 range and considerably less talent to choose from as you go higher. I have told our staff that we are not looking for a bunch of “projects” that may take years to develop. We need talented, athletic players who can contribute quickly. Having versatility with all of our players will give us a unique style of play. We want all of our players to develop completely and be able to shoot, pass, post and handle the ball. This will create match-up problems and make us able to adapt to most any situation.

Fuller started three seasons for the Dragons and was named the team's most valuable player for the 1985-86 season. He earned his degree in business administration from Drexel in 1987.

Prior to his experience in the Atlantic Coast Conference, Fuller was on staff at William and Mary from 1994-1998 under Charlie Wollum.

He served one year as a marketing representative for the Philadelphia 76'ers before starting his coaching career at his alma mater. The name Horace "Pappy" Owens is well known by all familiar with Philadelphia hoops as a former McDonald's All-America ('79) out of the City's Dobbins Tech.

Owens is back for his third season as an assistant on Coach Giannini's staff.

"Coach Owens is one of the many truly outstanding basketball players that the city has produced," commented Coach Giannini. "There is no question that his reputation and relationships in the area will aid us in our recruiting efforts.

As the North Philadelphia Area Coordinator for the renowned Sonny Hill Basketball League, Owens is a fixture in Philadelphia high school basketball.

As coach of the Philadelphia Phoenix A.A.U teams for the past six years, he has mentored stand-outs Michael Blackshear (Simon Gratz), Wayne Marshall (Martin Luther King), Chaz Crawford (Northeast) and Troy Roundtree (Northeast) among dozens of others who have gone on to play Division I hoops.

Owens became one of the top all-time players at the University of Rhode Island ('79-'83) where he is fifth on the all-time scoring list (1,750) and ranks in the top five in several statistical categories. Owens was the 44th pick of the NBA Draft by the New Jersey Nets in 1983 and was traded to the Philadelphia 76ers where he spent one season at the professional level.

Owens entered the collegiate coaching ranks after 14 years as a juvenile probation officer for the City of Philadelphia. Coach Owens and his wife of 17 years Kelley reside in Philadelphia. He has two sons, Horace Jr. (17) and Eric Copes (26).

— COACH GIANNINI

Ashley Howard began his professional coaching career just miles from the place where he played his college ball with the Drexel Dragons. He returns for his third season on Coach Giannini's staff.

"I am extremely happy to have Ashley as part of our staff. I am very impressed with his knowledge of the game as a young coach, his ability to teach, his enthusiasm and energy and the relationship that he has had with the players and coaches that he has worked with," said Coach Giannini.

Howard had his collegiate career cut short when he was diagnosed with a heart condition after his sophomore season with the Dragons. In his final season at Drexel he averaged 8.9 points per game with just under five assists.

In the summer of 2006 Howard was named assistant coach of the Jamaican National team and accompanied the squad on its Olympic qualifying bid in Kingston. The team earned a gold medal in the qualifying tourney.

The former Drexel standout also served as the Assistant Director of Eastern Invitational Basketball prior to coming to La Salle.

Howard stayed on the Drexel staff for three seasons as a student assistant for Bruiser Flint and earned his Bachelor's in Communications in May of 2004.

A native Philadelphian, the Monsignor Bonner graduate was named by Street and Smith's magazine as an honorable mention high school All-America, a two-time All-Catholic League selection, and was named to the Philadelphia Daily News All-City team.

Ashley is the son of Maurice Howard and Diane Coleman. He has a sister Ayana Howard (16) and a brother Kyran Howard (13).

2005-06 SEASON

The image is clear and will be etched in the memory of those who witnessed it for years to come – Coach John Giannini and seniors Jermaine Thomas, Steven Smith and Lewis Fadipe standing at mid-court, hands connecting one another, arms raised over their heads in victory.

The immediate cause for celebration was a dramatic Explorer victory over Saint Louis in the seniors' last career games at Tom Gola Arena. The 62-52 win over the Billikens gave them an 18-10 finish and an all-time high third-place finish in the Atlantic 10 Conference. In the grander scheme, however, the celebration was symbolic of many other, more profound things.

The image might very well be the triumphant pronouncement that, after much strife and struggle, La Salle University basketball is back.

After falling short of the .500 mark each year since the 1995-96 season, the 2005-06 Explorers broke through barriers that kept them from a winning record and just kept running.

It started with an improbable and exciting 7-0 start that including the longest game in school history – a four-overtime walk-off win at Central Connecticut State. The rampant start set the Explorers up for their first Big 5 showdown of the season – an appointment with Villanova whose own 7-0 record had them ranked in the top 10 nationally. The match-up drew national attention and if the Explorers hadn't sandwiched in an overtime win over Florida International between the CSSU marathon and their date with the Wildcats, it may have been a better battle. The Explorers, however, came into The Pavilion on a Thursday night having already played five overtimes (105 minutes) of extra basketball that week. The Explorers jumped out to a 7-0 lead on the #3 team in American but the end result was a big Villanova win.

The game would start a series of six games where the Explorers alternated wins and losses. The final win in the string came in the Atlantic 10 opener at Richmond where their first A-10 win (67-56) at the Robins Center would foreshadow a season in which the Explorers would set a school precedent for road wins since joining the league.

Following the win at Richmond, the Explorers would hit their driest stretch of the season with five straight losses that included defeats to Big 5 rivals Saint Joseph's and Penn.

When the Explorers held on for a 68-61 win over Massachusetts at Tom Gola Arena on January 29, however, it would start another streak – one which would not end until February 18 and see them assemble their second seven game winning streak of the season. During that run much was accomplished.

Among the seven wins was an Atlantic 10 and Big 5 defeat of city rival Temple which gave seniors Lewis Fadipe, Steven Smith and Jermaine

2005-06 SEASON IN REVIEW

Thomas the first Big 5 win of their careers. Another highlight was ending the Massachusetts Minutemen's 12 game winning streak at the Mullins Center with a 21-point victory to guarantee no worse than a .500 season.

It took one more road game to ensure La Salle its first winning basketball season since the 1992-93 season when the team notched its first win at Xavier's Cintas Center – a scintillating 79-70 victory over the Musketeers in front of a sold-out crowd.

The finale of the winning streak came in what may have been one of the most entertaining games ever played at Tom Gola Arena. The Explorers and the Dayton Flyers swapped the lead 20 times and were tied seven other times. Steven Smith's turnaround jumper with the shot clock expiring proved crucial in the 74-71 La Salle victory over a squad to whom it had lost its last 10 games dating back to the last century.

The Explorers' second match-up with a top-10 team put an end to the winning as #6 George Washington couldn't shake the Explorers for a half, but eventually distanced themselves with a 77-65 win at the Smith Center in Washington, DC.

After a poor shooting performance in the Bronx yielded a defeat to Fordham the Explorers returned to Tom Gola Arena for a farewell game for the seniors.

At the conclusion of forty minutes of play, a near capacity crowd was on its feet and remained in the building soaking up every last second of the season that changed everything. Atlantic 10 newcomer Saint Louis had the misfortune of being the team to draw La Salle on the final day of the season and left its first appearance at Gola Arena recipients of a 62-52 loss, which knocked them down to fourth in the conference and propelled the Explorers to a school-best third place and earned them a bye in the upcoming Atlantic 10 tournament.

The win was the 18th for the team – its most in 15 years. The team also set marks for most wins in conference, with its first winning record in A-10 play, Atlantic 10 road wins and victories at road venues it hadn't ever won at before. The team galvanized a loyal fan base that had stuck with it through so many hard years and energized a whole new contingent of Explorer fans who came back to witness the rebirth.

At the center of it all were the heroes – Lewis Fadipe, Jermaine Thomas and Steven Smith – the three seniors who had seen it all.

Smith would finish the season just 69 points shy of 2,000 career points (a mark he would have shattered had he not been injured for the final 10 games of his freshman season), and win his second Atlantic 10 Player of the Year Award, this time outright after sharing it a season prior.

Meanwhile, Thomas would join the 1,000-point club and become the ultimate court general. But the progress was not limited to the seniors. Junior Mike St. John had developed into a defensive force and a workhorse with a knack for hitting critical three-pointers when the Explorers needed one most. Sophomore Darnell Harris, continued to cultivate his game as one of the Atlantic 10's top perimeter threats with an average of 12.6 points per game a three-point percentage of 39.1. Few will forget his performance at Temple when he hit his first five three-pointers including three in a span of 95 seconds in the first half. Twenty days later, he would drop five more triples on the Owls in the huge Big 5 win and finish the season 10-23 from the arc against his Big 5 brethren.

Earlier that season and several times since John Giannini had referred to the 2005-06 Explorers as La Salle's "Unforgettables," referencing a group of University of Kentucky players who had endured similar hardships in their careers. He pointed out that after a summer of turmoil in 2004 that gutted the team and left it with seven scholarship players – this crew and its upperclassmen leaders stuck it out and turned a team that struggled to win an improbable 10 games one year prior into the class of the A-10. For that they too will always be unforgettable.

So, as they stood with Coach Giannini at mid-court while the praise poured down on them from an adoring crowd, it was easy to recognize what "pride" looked like. Pride was back at La Salle and it was present in the building, it stood symbolically at the center of Gola Arena with its arms raised in victory. Pride was back. La Salle basketball had returned.

Explorers Open Season With 70-55 Win Over UMB

BALTIMORE, MD—A balanced scoring attack and solid free-throw shooting started the Explorers' season on a positive note, as La Salle defeated Maryland-Baltimore County, 70-55, at RAC Arena.

Three Explorers scored in double-digits, and six players chipped in at least six points as La Salle earned its first season-opening victory since 2003. Senior Jermaine Thomas came off the bench to score a game-high 17 points. Fellow senior Steven Smith wound up a rebound shy of a double-double, scoring 15 points and snaring nine boards.

Sophomore guard Darrell Harris added 13 points, including a pair of treys.

The Explorers led for most of the game, building a 10-point lead in the first half before heading into the locker room leading the Retrievers, 35-29.

UMBC scored the first eight points of the second half to take the lead, 37-35. Stretching back to the first half, the Retrievers rattled off 12 consecutive points.

La Salle fought back from its shaky start to the second stanza to once again take the lead with under 12 minutes to play. The Explorers would see their cushion reach 13 points with 6:30 to play. La Salle held tough down the stretch, limiting UMB to just 18 points over the final 15 minutes. The Explorers shot 24-for-30 from the free-throw line in the second half to seal the deal.

La Salle shot 43 percent from the field and 39 percent from beyond the three-point arc. UMB (1-1) hit 39 percent of its shots, but connected on just 19 percent of its attempts from three-point land. Brian Hodges led the Retrievers with 17 points; John Zito chipped in 10. La Salle held a narrow edge in rebounds, 34-32.

Smith Scores 31 to Lead
Explorers Past American

PHILADELPHIA, PA—Senior forward Steven Smith posted 31 points and 13 rebounds, earning his first double-double of the season, as the Explorers defeated American, 75-63, at Tom Gola Arena. La Salle is off to its first 2-0 start since the 2002-03 season.

The Explorers trailed by two at the half in a tight back-and-forth game. With the score tied at 45 and under 15 minutes to play, Smith made a play that seemed to swing the game's momentum to the Explorers for good. Senior Jermaine Thomas shot an airball that was headed out of bounds under the net. Smith kept the play alive with a miraculous diving underhand toss that sailed the ball toward Tabby Cunningham. Cunningham dished the ball to Lewis Fadipre, who drove home a dunk to put La Salle up by two.

Two minutes later, Smith struck again, this time spinning past a defender and banking a shot in off the glass to stretch the lead to four. Smith was 12-for-23 from the field. Seven off his boards came on the defensive end of the court.

For the second-straight game three Explorers scored in double-figures, with Thomas and freshman Paul Johnson accompanying Smith. Thomas netted 14 points, including a pair of treys, and Johnson chipped in 10 points.

Brayden Billbe and Garrison Carr led American, scoring 13 points each. La Salle outrebounded the Eagles by a 36-32 margin.

LA SALLE 73, MOUNT SAINT MARY'S 51

Smith and Thomas Mount Attack
for Third Straight Win

PHILADELPHIA, PA—Seniors Steven Smith and Jermaine Thomas combined to score 40 points and lead the Explorers (3-0) over Mount St. Mary's, 73-51, at Tom Gola Arena. By winning its first three games, the La Salle is off to its best start since 1999. Smith led all scorers with 22 points and pulled in seven rebounds. Thomas netted 18 points and also grabbed seven boards.

The Explorers led for almost the entire game, trailing only at the outset. La Salle led by as many as 29 points in the second half. The win marked the first time since 2003 that the Explorers won by more than 20 points.

La Salle showed some flash in the first half, exciting the crowd. Early on, senior Lewis Fadipre got his hand on a shot by the Mount's Mychal Kearse, deflecting the ball skyward. Smith tipped the ball several times before eventually getting the ball to freshman Paul Johnson, who corralled the rebound and fed a breaking Tabby Cunningham. Cunningham whirled around in the paint before dishing the ball to Smith, who threw down a dunk.

Later in the half, Johnson scored a layup on a nice backdoor cut off a nifty feed from junior Mike St. John.

Fadipre rebounded season highs in points (nine) and rebounds (nine). Cunningham scored four points and had four steals. Johnson finished with six points, including an explosive two-handed dunk off a Mount St. Mary's turnover.

The Mount (1-3) shot 28 percent from the floor, compared to La Salle's 53 percent. The Explorers held the edge in rebounds, 40-30.

2005-06 SEASON IN REVIEW: RECAPS AND BOX SCORES

DECEMBER 3, 2005

LA SALLE 62, DREXEL 50

Smith's Double-Double Dooms Dragons

PHILADELPHIA, PA — All-America candidate Steven Smith registered his second double-double of the season, scoring 26 points and tying a career-high with 15 rebounds to lead La Salle (4-0) over crosstown rival Drexel (3-5), 62-50, as part of the Big 5 Classic at the Palestra. The Explorers are off to their best start since they went 5-0 at the outset of the 1994-95 season.

The first half was a closely contested one, as no team led by more than four points until the Explorers stretched the lead to six with under a minute to play. A jumper by Tabby Cunningham with two seconds to go in the half gave La Salle an eight-point cushion at the break.

The Dragons fought back, cutting the lead to one point with under eight minutes to play in the game, but a Mike St. John three-kickoff off a stretch that would seal the win for La Salle. On the next possession, St. John put up another three-pointer that bounced off the rim. Freshman Paul Johnson missed a put-back, but Smith slammed home a follow dunk.

Drexel tried to press, but senior Jermaine Thomas managed a long outlet pass for a fast-break dunk by Smith, who was fouled. After converting the old-fashioned three-point play, the score was 55-47. The Dragons would not lose closer.

St. John finished with nine points and seven rebounds for the Explorers, who shot 43 percent from the floor. Cunningham had six points and four assists.

Frank Elegar had a double-double for Drexel, leading the team with 18 points and 13 rebounds. Freshman Scott Rodgers kicked in eight points off the bench.

LA SALLE 70, JAMES MADISON 58

Explorers Reach 5-0 With Win Over James Madison

HARRISONBURG, VA — With four players scoring in double figures, the La Salle men's basketball team improved to 5-0 for the first time since 1994 with a 70-58 win over James Madison at the JMU Convocation Center.

In a sloppy, turnover-filled game, the Explorers surged ahead early. Leading 9-8 with under 12 minutes to play in the first half, La Salle went on a 9-0 run to stretch its lead to 10 points. After sophomore Tabby Cunningham sank a three-pointer at the buzzer, the Explorers saw their lead balloon to 18 points at the half. After hitting the first basket of the second stanza, La Salle saw its biggest lead of the day at 20 points.

James Madison refused to roll over, as the Dukes repeatedly attempted comebacks, shrinking La Salle's lead to 11 at one point. That was as close as they would come.

The Explorers once again used balanced scoring to secure a win, this time surviving off-games from seniors Steven Smith and Jermaine Thomas. Thomas scored seven points, and Smith, who struggled from the field, finished with 10 points and nine rebounds after fouling out with under five minutes to play. Smith was whistled for his fourth foul and received a technical while disputing the call, ending his day early.

Cunningham led the Explorers, who shot 47 percent from the floor, with 13 points. Fellow sophomore Darnell Harris finished with 11 points and senior Lewis Fadipe scored a season-high 10 points.

The Dukes' Daniel Freeman led all scorers with 21 points, all coming in the second half. Cavell Johnson scored 13 for James Madison and Juwann James chipped in 10. La Salle was outrebounded for the first time this season as the Dukes grabbed 36 boards compared to the Explorers' 30.

The win was the second in a row over a Colonial Athletic Association team for the Explorers, who defeated Drexel, 62-50, at the Palestra on Dec. 3.

La Salle will play one more CAA opponent, when Hofstra visits Tom Gola Arena on Dec. 30.

DARNELL HARRIS

DECEMBER 22, 2005

VILLANOVA 98, LA SALLE 57

Villanova Hands Explorers First Loss

VILLANOVA, PA – The La Salle men's basketball team saw its undefeated streak end, falling to nationally-ranked Villanova, 98-57, at the Pavilion. After the Explorers (7-1) jumped out to an early lead, the third-ranked Wildcats (8-0), led by the strong shooting of Allan Ray and Randy Foye, charged back to take control of the game.

La Salle came out strong, scoring the game's first seven points and did not relinquish the lead until a Mike Nardi three-pointer tied it at 11. Sophomore Darnell Harris scored five of La Salle's first seven points.

Ray scored 15 first-half points, including four three-pointers. Three of those treys came in a three-minute span, and led to a 16-point Villanova cushion. The Explorers headed to the locker room down 20 points. Ray finished with a game-high 21 points on 7-of-13 shooting.

Any attempt at a La Salle comeback was thwarted by Foye's red-hot second-half shooting. Foye hit six trifectas in the second half and finished the game with eight points. He scored 20 points on the night, 15 of which came in the second half.

Villanova used double- and triple-teams on senior Steven Smith, who scored 13 points. Harris led the Explorers with 15 points.

La Salle shot 35 percent from the floor, compared to Villanova's 54 percent. The Wildcats held the narrow edge in rebounds, 37-35.

LA SALLE 85, SAINT FRANCIS 55

Explorers Bounce Back Big, Defeat Saint Francis By 30

PHILADELPHIA, PA – After a five-day layoff following their first loss of the season, the Explorers (8-1) responded with an 85-55 drubbing of Saint Francis (PA) at Tom Gola Arena. Five La Salle players registered double figures in scoring, led by All-America candidate Steven Smith, who netted 16 points.

La Salle built a 16-point lead in the first half, but Saint Francis narrowed the margin to nine as the teams went to the locker room. The Explorers tightened up on defense early in the second half, keeping the Red Flash scoreless for a five-minute span, led by the hustle of Mike St. John. The junior grabbed five steals on the night. All told, La Salle went on a 27-2 run that lasted from just after the 16-minute mark until there was only six minutes left to play.

The Explorers saw their lead balloon to as many as 41 points, which was a welcome sight after being on the receiving end of a 41-point loss to No. 3 Villanova on Dec. 22.

Senior Jermaine Thomas finished with 14 points, while classmate Lewis Fadieu set a career-high with 12 points. He also grabbed seven rebounds and swatted one shot. Freshman Paul Johnson scored 11 points and sophomore Darnell Harris tallied 12 points off the bench.

The last time La Salle won by 30 or more points was on Jan. 23, 2000, an 80-49 victory at Xavier.

The Explorers shot 53 percent from the field, compared to Saint Francis' 42 percent. La Salle also held the edge in rebounds, 40-26.

The Red Flash (2-8) suffered their sixth-straight loss and never led by more than one point.

HOFSTRA 71, LA SALLE 70

Hofstra Edges La Salle, 71-70

PHILADELPHIA, PA – The La Salle men's basketball team squandered an eight-point lead under five minutes to play, allowing Hofstra (8-2) to fight its way back and win a closely-contested game at Tom Gola Arena, 71-70. The loss spoiled a fine night by senior Steven Smith, who notched his fourth double-double of the season with 21 points and 10 rebounds.

With La Salle leading 69-61 with 4:34 left on the clock, Hofstra mounted a comeback that was kicked off with a Aurimas Kieza three-pointer. The Pride's Carlos Rivera stole the ball from Tabby Cunningham and fed Kieza for a jumper. Kieza then picked Smith's pocket and took off for a fast-break layup, tying the score at 69.

On La Salle's next possession, Smith was fouled attempting a layup. He made one of two free throws to give the Explorers a one-point lead. Hofstra's Antoine Agudio then hit a jumper with just over a minute left to put the Pride up 71-70.

The Explorers had a couple of chances to take the lead. Senior Jermaine Thomas missed a jumper with 47 seconds to go, and Rivera corrected the rebound. On the ensuing possession, Greg Johnson missed a three and the rebound went out of bounds, giving La Salle the ball with six seconds left. After a Hofstra timeout, Cunningham tried to drive the length of the court, but was tied up and lost the ball as time expired.

Agudio's 23 points led all scorers. La Salle's Darnell Harris contributed 16 points on 6-of-9 shooting, including four treys. Freshman Paul Johnson added 11 points. The Explorers connected on 50 percent of their shots.

Loren Stokes had 18 points for the Pride, who shot 49 percent from the floor. Adrian Uter added 12 points and Kieza finished with nine.

LA SALLE 84, DUQUESNE 61

La Salle Overcomes Slow Start to Defeat Duquesne, 84-61

PHILADELPHIA, PA — The La Salle men's basketball team (9-2, 1-0 Atlantic 10) opened its conference schedule with a matinee win over visiting Duquesne (2-10, 0-1), 84-61. After falling behind by as many as 11 points in the first half, the Explorers took control in the second half, powered by a 15-0 run.

Down 43-40 with under 16 minutes left on the clock, junior Mike St. John sank a free throw to kick off the run. Senior Steve Smith hit a face-up jumper on La Salle's next possession, and senior Jermaine Thomas made the most out of a long defensive rebound, finding a streaking Paul Johnson for a fast-break layup. By the time the Explorers looked up, they were ahead 60-45 with under nine minutes to play.

La Salle made good use of the shot clock in closing out the Dukes, running it down to single digits and twice finding an open Darnell Harris for a three-pointer.

For the fourth time this season, La Salle had five players score in double-figures. Smith led the Explorers with 21 points, 14 coming in the second half. Harris finished with 14 points and Thomas netted 12. Freshmen Marshall Taylor and Johnson scored 10 points each.

Duquesne's Bryant McAllister led all scorers with 22 points. Aaron Jackson kicked in 16 points for the Dukes.

LA SALLE 67, RICHMOND 56

Balanced Scoring Propels Explorers Past Richmond

RICHMOND, VA – Once again led by a balanced scoring attack, the La Salle Explorers (10-2, 2-0 Atlantic 10) held off a tough Richmond team (7-7, 0-1) to earn a 67-56 win at the Robins Center. For the sixth time this season, four Explorers scored in double figures. The victory gives La Salle 10 wins, equaling its win total from last season.

The Explorers survived a second-half Spider charge to win a streaky game that was filled with one scoring run after another. After Richmond started off the game with a 7-4 advantage, La Salle unfurled a 21-6 run to take control. Just as the Explorers stretched their lead to a game-high 13 points, Richmond responded with an 18-6 run that made it a one-point game with 12 minutes left in the game. That would be as close as the Spiders would get, as La Salle would score 17 of the next 23 points to take a 60-48 lead.

Sophomore Darnell Harris had a hot hand from three-point land, connecting on four treys. Harris scored a game-high 15 points, and his trifecta with 4 minutes, 54 seconds to go proved to be the final nail in the Richmond coffin.

Senior Steven Smith scored 14 points, and junior Mike St. John and freshman Marshall Taylor contributed 11 points each, as the Explorers hung 67 points on a Richmond squad that entered the game ranked second in the nation in points allowed. The most points the Spiders had previously allowed this season came from Tulane, who scored 64 points on Dec. 27.

Senior Lewis Fadipe was a force on the glass in the first half for the Explorers, grabbing all eight of his rebounds in the opening frame. Smith finished with seven boards.

Gaston Moliva led Richmond with 14 points and eight rebounds and Peter Thomas chipped in 13 points. The Spiders held the edge in rebounding by a 36-31 margin.

RHODE ISLAND 71, LA SALLE 68
Explorers Come Out on Losing End of Battle With Rhode Island

PHILADELPHIA, PA — Despite mounting a second-half comeback after trailing most of the way, the La Salle men's basketball team (10-5, 2-3 Atlantic 10) could not hold on as Rhode Island (9-6, 3-1) gutted out a 71-68 win at Tom Gola Arena. The Rams won the contest at the foul line, making six clutch free throws at the end of the game.

The Explorers tied the game at 63 with just under two minutes to play on a Darnell Harris three-pointer. Freshman Marshall Taylor penetrated the lane and kicked the ball out to Harris, who found the bottom of the net. From that point on, six of Rhode Island's final eight points were scored from the charity stripe.

La Salle kept it close, trailing by three points with 1 minute, 13 seconds left on the clock. The Explorers had a chance to tie when senior Steven Smith was open for a three-pointer, but sophomore Tabby Cunningham could not get him the ball. Guard Jermaine Thomas was fouled on the play. Thomas made the ensuing free throws to cut the deficit to one, but Rhode Island's Jamaal Wise was fouled on the next possession and sank his foul shots to put the Rams back up three. Smith heaved a three-pointer on his next trip down the court, but the shot didn't fall.

Rhode Island sealed off the win with a layup off a long outlet pass from Jimmy Baron to Dawan Robinson, beating La Salle's full court pressure. Robinson led all scorers with 20 points. Smith and Thomas paced the Explorers with 16 points apiece. Taylor contributed 11 points, while Harris netted 14 on four trifectas.

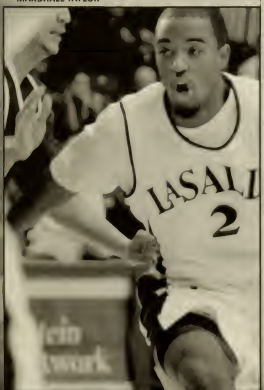

La Salle trailed by as many as nine points in the first half, but went into the locker room down six. The Explorers tied the game early in the second stanza on a Taylor three-pointer. La Salle then went on a 10-1 run to take its biggest lead of the game at six points. From there, the game was closely contested as no team led by more than four points until the closing seconds.

ST. JOSEPH'S 66, LA SALLE 54
A Tale of Two Halves as Hawks Upend Explorers

PHILADELPHIA, PA — After holding Saint Joseph's to just 16 points in the first half, the Explorers let up 50 second-half points, falling 66-54 in Big 5 action at the Palestra. From the looks of play in the first half, La Salle was headed toward victory, but the second stanza took a dramatic turn and the Explorers dropped to 10-6 (2-4 Atlantic 10, 0-2 Big 5).

La Salle shut down Saint Joseph's early on, using a stringent defense that caused eight turnovers and swatted five shots. The Explorers scored the game's first nine points and opened up a 13-point lead as the Hawks shot a paltry 14 percent from the floor for the half. In contrast, La Salle hit 40 percent of their shots, led by nine points from senior Steven Smith, who finished with 17 points.

Coming out of the locker room at the break, the Explorers held a 27-16 advantage. Here's where the dramatic twist in the plot kicked in: The Hawks came out and rattled off a 16-5 run to tie the game. Saint Joseph's outscored La Salle 50-27 in the second half. Hawks forward Chet Stachitis nailed a trifecta of three-pointers on his way to scoring 15 points, all in the second half. Dwayne Lee and Rob Ferguson, who were held scoreless in the first half, finished with 10 and 11 points, respectively. The Explorers shot just 8-for-29 in the second half.

Senior Jermaine Thomas scored eight points for La Salle, while junior Mike St. John contributed seven points and nine rebounds off the bench. Saint Joseph's held the advantage in rebounds, 41-30.

LA SALLE 75, DUQUESNE 66
Explorers Down Duquesne, 75-66

PHILADELPHIA, PA. — The La Salle men's basketball team notched its 12th win of the season, defeating Duquesne (3-16, 1-7 Atlantic 10), for the second time this season, by a score of 75-66 at the A.J. Palumbo Center. The Explorers (12-7, 4-4) led by as many as 19 points, and saw three players score in double figures.

Senior Jermaine Thomas led La Salle with a season-high 20 points, including three three-pointers. Sophomore Darnell Harris finished with 12 points, while senior Steven Smith added 11 points and eight rebounds.

The Explorers, who led wire to wire, used a late first-half run to pull away from the Dukes. Led by six Lewis Fadipe points, La Salle outscored Duquesne 13-1 over a four-minute span and took a 41-25 lead into the locker room at halftime. Fadipe finished with eight points, all coming in the first half.

La Salle got off to a slow start, missing four of its first five shots, but still managed to cut out an 8-1 lead as Harris hit back-to-back three pointers. Duquesne scored 11 of the next 16 points to cut the La Salle lead to one with under 12 minutes to play in the first half, but that would be as close as the Dukes would come.

Duquesne made a game of it in the second half, chipping away at the Explorers' once-comfortable lead. The Dukes cut it down to nine points with under nine minutes to play. La Salle answered right back, rebuilding its lead to 16 points with under five minutes to play. The relentless Dukes refused to let the Explorers breathe easily, cutting the lead down to nine points in the waning minutes.

Sophomore Tabby Cunningham grabbed a career-high seven rebounds. The 5-foot-8 guard also dished out seven assists and finished with two points.

Bryant McAllister led the Dukes with 20 points. La Salle outscored Duquesne by a 40-29 margin.

LA SALLE 62, TEMPLE 56
Senior Class Saves Best for Last

PHILADELPHIA, PA. — The La Salle men's basketball team snapped a 15-game Big 5 losing streak, handing Temple a 62-56 defeat before a sell-out crowd at Tom Gola Arena. The win was the first in Big 5 play for the Explorers' senior class. Senior Steven Smith led all scorers with 21 points, including a career-high five three pointers.

Temple opened up an early five-point lead, but La Salle fought right back and took the lead for good on Smith's first bucket of the game, a three-pointer with just under 14 minutes to play. The Explorers exploited Temple's matchup zone, making multiple passes to find an open man, most often for a trey. La Salle shot 14-for-28 from beyond the arc for the game.

Sophomore Darnell Harris, who scored 17 points in a Jan. 14 loss at Temple, netted 19 today, tying a career-high by hitting five trifectas. Senior Jermaine Thomas added nine points on three huge treys.

After the La Salle lead grew to as many as nine points late in the second half, Temple attempted a comeback, slicing the deficit to two with under two minutes to play on a Marty Collins put-back. Smith collected a Harris miss and was fouled going to the hoop. The All-America candidate then hit a pair of free throws to extend the lead to four points.

On the Owls' next possession, Collins was whistled for traveling, handing the ball back to the Explorers. Thomas was fouled and missed the front-end of a one-and-one and Smith's tip-in didn't fall. Temple's Wayne Marshall grabbed the board and the Owls set up their offense. Smith, playing tight defense on Antwayne Robinson, was run into Marshall, who was attempting to set a pick, but knocked Smith to the floor and drew an offensive foul. Harris sank a pair of free throws on the Explorers' next possession, sealing La Salle's first Big 5 win since Feb. 13, 2002.

La Salle shot 47 percent from the floor, compared to Temple's 37 percent. The Owls won the battle on the boards, 34-28.

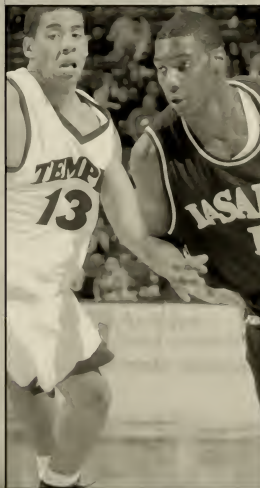

The Explorers improved to 13-7 (5-4 Atlantic 10, 1-3 Big 5), while Temple dropped to 12-8 (5-4, 1-3).

La Salle Losing Legacy Ends With Win at UMass

AMHERST, MA — With a 65-44 win over Massachusetts, the La Salle Explorers (14-7, 6-4 Atlantic 10) guaranteed their first non-losing season in 12 years. La Salle used a series of scoring streaks to defeat UMass (10-10, 5-5) and ensure that they will finish .500 or better for the first time since the 1992-93.

The Explorers saw four players score in double figures and spent most of the second half without the services of senior Steven Smith, who was whistled for his fourth foul with over 14 minutes left to play.

After falling behind by six points early in a sloppy first half, La Salle used a 13-0 run to take the lead. The run featured a quick stretch of a Smith follow dunk, then a Smith three-point followed by a Paul Johnson fast-break dunk off a steal. The Minutemen ended their scoring drought with a Brandon Thomas three, but by halftime La Salle led 27-22 on the strength of an 18-6 run.

The Explorers came out breathing fire in the second half, rattling off 10 straight points, including three-straight trifectas. The sophomore finished with a team-high 14 points and nine rebounds. La Salle saw its second overwhelming run reach 17-6 before UMass came back to life. After hitting six consecutive free throws, the Minutemen's James Life unleashed three straight three-pointers to cut the La Salle lead to 46-41. Life scored 15 consecutive points in that span and finished with 18 after hitting another trey, his team's only other basket of the half.

After Life cooled off and missed his second consecutive three-point attempt, the ball appeared headed out of bounds when teammate Rashawn Freeman dove into the crowd to save the rebound. The ball found La Salle senior Jermaine Thomas, who passed the ball to Smith volleyball-style for a layup.

Smith finished with 10 points in just 27 minutes, while Thomas added 12 points. Junior Mike St. John, playing in front of a hometown crowd, scored 13 points, including three three-pointers, which tied a career-high.

The Explorers handed the Minutemen their first home loss of the season, ending a string of 12 straight wins at the Mullins Center.

Explorers Ensure Winning Season With Victory at Xavier

CINCINNATI, OH — The La Salle men's basketball team (15-7, 7-4 Atlantic 10) guaranteed a winning season with a 79-70 win over conference rival Xavier (14-7, 5-5) at the Cintas Center. The Explorers fended off a late Musketeer comeback attempt to lock down their fifth win in a row and first winning season since the 1992-93 campaign.

La Salle saw three players reach double figures in scoring, led by a game-high 23 points from All-America candidate Steven Smith. The senior also pulled down a game-high 11 rebounds for his sixth double-double of the season.

The game was closely-contested for the entire first half, with a five-point La Salle advantage serving as the largest lead for either team. After the two teams traded baskets for most of the half, the Explorers took a 40-36 lead into the locker room at the break.

After a Dedrick Finn three-pointer at the very beginning of the second half cut the La Salle lead to one point, Xavier did not make a field goal for the next nine minutes. By that point, the Explorers had rattled off an 18-8 run and led by as many as 15 points after a Darnell Harris three-point. The sophomore finished with 18 points and five rebounds and connected on a trifecta of three-pointers. Teammate senior Jermaine Thomas also netted 18 points on three treys, adding eight rebounds and six assists.

The La Salle double-digit lead would not hold, as Xavier used a four-minute 12-3 run to cut the lead to two points after Stanley Burrell found Justin Cage in the lane for a layup. That would be as close as the Musketeers would get as the two teams battled back and forth before a Marshall Taylor left-handed layup gave the Explorers a six point lead.

Xavier would get within five points with under a minute to play, but the Musketeers were forced to foul and La Salle made good on its free-throw attempts to seal the victory.

La Salle won the battle of the boards, 45-30, and grabbed a season-high 18 offensive rebounds. Junior Mike St. John contributed nine rebounds. The Explorers shot 43 percent from the field and 47 percent from beyond the arc. Xavier connected on 38 percent of its shots, making only 24 percent of its attempts from three-point land.

Bonnies Buckle as Explorers Pick Up 16th Win

PHILADELPHIA, PA — Despite allowing St. Bonaventure (7-16, 1-11 Atlantic 10) a narrow lead for a good portion of the first half, La Salle (16-7, 8-4) took control of a sloppy game and picked up a 74-62 victory on the strength of four Explorers scoring in double figures.

La Salle took a while to get rolling, as the Bonnies held a four-point lead with under 10 minutes to go in the first frame. The Explorers would retain control with a layup by senior Lewis Fadipe. La Salle slowly eked out a double-digit lead as the clock wore down toward halftime. Sherman Diaz scored eight first-half points off the bench, including a pair of three-pointers. The sophomore finished with 11 points, tying a career-high.

Senior All-America candidate Steven Smith netted a game-high 22 points, adding six rebounds and six assists. Fellow senior Jermaine Thomas tallied 17 points, eight assists and five rebounds. Sophomore Darnell Harris chipped in 12 points.

The Explorers picked up the win without the services of Marshall Taylor and Tabby Cunningham. Taylor suffered a ruptured appendix the night before the game and remains under care of Einstein Medical Center, while Cunningham missed his third straight game after suffering an ankle injury.

La Salle needed its bench to step up in the absence of Cunningham and Taylor, and the Explorers reserves outscored their St. Bonaventure counterparts 15-10. Junior guard Sean Neal played a season-high 13 minutes, scoring two points and grabbing a pair of rebounds. Neal grabbed a board on the defensive glass and went coast-to-coast for a fast-break layup to account for his two points.

The Explorers shot 47 percent from the field, compared to the Bonnies' 39 percent, and outrebounded St. Bonaventure 42-40.

Explorers Win Seventh Straight in Seesaw Battle with Dayton

PHILADELPHIA, PA — The La Salle men's basketball team (17-7, 9-4 Atlantic 10) won its seventh consecutive game, dropping Dayton (12-14, 4-8), 74-71, in a contest that saw the lead change hands 20 times. The Explorers were led by the play of senior Steven Smith, who scored a game-high 25 points, including a clutch turnaround three-pointer as the shot clock was expiring.

After the two teams battled back and forth for the first 32 minutes, the Explorers put together an 8-2 run to take an eight-point lead. During that stretch came Smith's break-breaking three. Coming out of a timeout with only 10 seconds on the shot clock, junior Mike St. John passed up an open three and kicked the ball out to sophomore Darnell Harris, who also passed on a trey with three ticks left on the clock. Instead, he fed the ball to Smith, who hoisted a turnaround jumper from behind the arc that somehow found the bottom of the net.

The Flyers would fight back, cutting the lead down to one point with under two minutes to play, but Smith sank a pair of free throws to give La Salle some breathing room. Dayton had a pair of chances to tie it at the close of the game. With two seconds left, the Flyers' Brian Roberts attempted a three, which did not fall. The rebound was tipped right back to him and he tried again to tie the game, unsuccessfully. Roberts finished with 24 points.

La Salle got a solid performance from Harris, who sank four trifectas on his way to 16 points. Teammate Jermaine Thomas added 17 points.

With 17 victories, La Salle has already achieved its highest win total since its last winning season, 1992-93, when the Explorers won 20 games.

The Explorers have won seven straight for the second time this season after opening the year 7-0 before falling to second 3 Villanova.

La Salle Seals Third Seed With Win Over Saint Louis

PHILADELPHIA, PA — Led by an outstanding performance from Steven Smith, the La Salle men's basketball team (18-9, 10-6 Atlantic 10) locked up a first-round bye in the A-10 tournament, defeating Saint Louis (16-12, 10-6), 62-52, to clinch the third seed. Smith scored 26 points and snared a career-high 16 rebounds in front of a Senior Day crowd at Tom Gola Arena.

The Explorers, who led for almost the entire game, jumped out to a quick 7-2 lead, but the Billikens fought back to take their only lead of the game at 8-7. Then La Salle switched to a zone defense in an attempt to confuse Saint Louis. The change worked, as the Billikens turned the ball over on their next possession and the turnover resulted in a Sherman Diaz three-pointer. On Saint Louis' next trip down the court, Smith blocked a hurried shot by Ian Vouyoukas, setting up a three-pointer by senior Jermaine Thomas.

La Salle kept the Billikens at bay for the rest of the half, but Saint Louis closed the gap to three points, heading to the locker room with the score 25-22. The Explorers kept plugging away, refusing to let Saint Louis get within reach.

Smith hit a back-breaking three-pointer with the shot clock about to expire to put his team up eight points and take the wind out of Saint Louis' sails. La Salle would lead by no fewer than six points the rest of the way.

Diaz tied a career-high with 11 points and Thomas finished with 10. Vouyoukas led Saint Louis with 13 points. Tommie Liddell registered a double-double with 11 points and 10 rebounds.

Smith's 26 points moved him past Kareem Townes and into seventh place all-time in scoring at La Salle. The senior now has 1,930 points.

The game also marked the final appearances at La Salle for seniors Smith, Thomas and Lewis Fadipe. Fadipe grabbed seven rebounds and added four points.

With the win, the Explorers will not have to play in the A-10 tournament until Thursday, March 9 at 8:30 p.m., when they will face the winner of the game between the sixth and 11th seeds.

Explorers Bow Out of A-10's; Lose to Fordham, 64-62

CINCINNATI, OH — The La Salle Explorers (18-10) came into Atlantic 10 Championship play as the third seed but opened up flat and found themselves trailing Fordham (16-15) 20-4 at the outset enroute to a 64-62 defeat at US Bank Arena on Thursday night.

The Explorers were led by sophomore Darnell Harris' 17 points but his final shot with three seconds remaining, nor Jermaine Thomas' put-back would go down as the Explorers dropped their second game in eight days to the Rams.

After trailing by as many as 18 points in the second half the Explorers found themselves in position to tie or go ahead when Paul Johnson tipped in a Steven Smith miss to draw to within 63-62 with 20 seconds left. The stick-back was the second in the final two minutes for Johnson who finished with 10 points and six rebounds.

The two-time Atlantic 10 Player of the Year Smith was kept in check with 10 points and four rebounds. He was held to just 31 minutes due to foul trouble and an minor elbow injury.

The loss is the third in the last four games for the Explorers whose 18 wins are the most in 13 years and whose third seed was the highest finish in their 11-year affiliation with the Atlantic 10 Conference. It also sealed a bizarre and unprecedented quarterfinal day for the conference that saw its top four seeds exit after their first game.

The Explorers will now have to await for the newly-configured National Invitational Tournament committee to release its field of 40 teams on Sunday night before they will know if the careers of seniors Smith, Thomas and Lewis Fadipe are complete.

Last season the Explorers finished 10-19.

LA SALLE

A COMPREHENSIVE UNIVERSITY OF INCREASING NATIONAL PROMINENCE

GROWING WITH OUR COMMUNITY

La Salle announced a multimillion-dollar public/private neighborhood revitalization and renewal effort. This includes the development of a much-needed, full-service supermarket and other retail shops on our Good Shepherd property. The project has the support of local officials and community groups.

La Salle has renovated its campus recreational areas by installing artificial turf on Hank DeVincent Field and McCarthy Stadium, and lights have been added to the stadium.

WE WALK THE WALK!

La Salle placed second among the Atlantic 10 schools with 120 student-athletes selected to both the Atlantic 10 Commissioner's Honor Roll and MAAC Honor Roll.

NATIONALLY RANKED

La Salle is ranked among the top 20 universities and top 10 Catholic universities in its category by U.S. News and World Report's "America's Best Colleges." The category—Universities: Master's Northern Region—is comprised of 165 schools, 42 of which are Catholic. Rankings are based upon academic reputation, selectivity, faculty resources, financial resources, retention, and alumni giving.

WE ARE LA SALLE

The Affirmation, a statement of shared values created by the Division of Student Affairs and student leaders in 2005, received wide recognition. Dean of Students Joseph J. Cicala, Ph.D. '79, along with various partners from the professional staff, student leaders, and alumni, made five presentations about The Affirmation at regional and national conferences.

Career Services brought more than 220 employers to campus through our three major annual events, the Experiential Education Fair, Career Expo, and the School of Nursing and Health Sciences Job Fair.

The student-led "I Am La Salle" campaign that inspired The Affirmation was honored as "Program of the Year" by the Central Atlantic Affiliates of College and University Residence Halls, of which our Resident Student Association is a member.

Twelve La Salle University Communication majors were selected to work as NBC interns for the 2006 Winter Olympics in Torino, Italy. Only six universities nationwide were invited to participate in the NBC Internship program.

THE PLACE TO BE

Applications for admission to the University—undergraduate and graduate—totaled 9,182, the largest in our history. Total applications have increased 93 percent in the last eight years.

Annual enrollment for the 2005-06 academic year was 7,652 students, up 17 percent over the last 10 years.

La Salle enrolled students from 34 states and 24 countries.

YOU ALWAYS HAVE A HOME

Homecoming 2005 set a record for attendance with more than 745 alumni, representing a 15 percent increase over 2004 and Family Weekend 2005 recorded its highest attendance in recent history, with more than 320 families enjoying the activities.

Project Teamwork—which matches dozens of students from Emlen Elementary School and Logan Elementary School with Big Brothers and Big Sisters from La Salle—was honored for the fifth consecutive year by the National Consortium for Academics and Sports for its community service and youth outreach program.

HEAD OF THE CLASS

As reported by the NCAA, La Salle has a graduation rate of 93 percent for our student-athletes. This exceeds the average rate of 85 percent for Division I schools.

TOM GOLA ARENA

Home of the Explorers

Over 50 years ago, in Tom Gola's senior season of 1954-55, the La Salle University men's basketball team played the majority of its home games in Wister Hall, where the campus bookstore currently is located. Since that season, the Explorers have called many sites off-campus home, however all of that changed on February 21, 1998 with a victory over Virginia Tech.

It took $6.3 million and 280 calendar days from groundbreaking on May 17, 1997 to return the men's basketball team to 20th & Olney fulltime. In the last home game of the 97-98 season, the Explorers defeated the Hokies, 74-64, before a sellout crowd, in an arena that went from approximately 1,000 seats to the current capacity of 4,000 – a 400% increase.

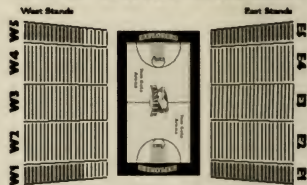

Tom Gola Arena is the home of the Explorers and the centerpiece of the Hayman Center. On November 21, 1998, La Salle officially named the arena after the legendary alum of the school in a ceremony at halftime that included most of the great La Salle ballplayers over the years. That night the Explorers defeated Howard, 86-63.

Including the first two wins over Virginia Tech and Howard, the men's basketball team has played 91 games in Tom Gola Arena, and has won 56 of those, a winning percentage of 62%. The Explorers won their first six games in their new home and have suffered through only one losing season at Tom Gola Arena. Last season, the Explorers were 10-3 at "The Tom" with wins over Temple, UMass, Dayton and Saint Louis. They will take a five-game home winning streak into the 2006-07 opener against Mount St. Mary's.

The Explorers have played many memorable games in the building, but the two that stand out the most are contests against Massachusetts and Saint Joseph's. In front of a national television audience (ESPN2) on February 23, 1999, La Salle defeated the Minutemen 63-60 and on March 2, 2001, the Explorers handed the 18th-ranked Hawks a 91-90 loss, only their fifth of the season.

YOU'RE ON OUR TURF NOW!

This summer La Salle University became home to Philadelphia's newest athletic playing surfaces when the grass at McCarthy Stadium and DeVincent Field was replaced by Sprinturf brand artificial turf.

The $2.5 million project includes lighting for McCarthy Stadium and the infrastructure to light DeVincent Field in the future.

In addition to giving La Salle student-athletes a state-of-the-art playing surface, the enhancement project has already contributed to student life at La Salle by enabling the intramural programs to expand. The lighting will also contribute to the local community by extending the hours that the track is available.

KALE BEERS

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS/VOICE OF THE EXPLORERS

Kale Beers is in his sixth full year as the Director of Athletic Communications for Explorer Athletics. The voice of Explorer basketball for the past ten seasons, Beers is the longest tenured play-by-play man in the Big 5 and only the great Dan Baker (Drexel/former Big 5 Radio Network) has called more city series games.

When the Explorers defeated American University on December 28, 2004, it marked Beers' 200th broadcast of La Salle men's basketball. Ironically, American was also the Explorers' opponent for Beers' first broadcast on the La Salle Basketball Radio Network (LRN) in 1996. Since then he has called close to 400 Explorer events including men's and women's basketball and football.

Beers took over the Athletic Communications office in January of 2002 after serving in various capacities in each of the past eleven years including the Director of Corporate Sales/Broadcasting. In this position, he was responsible for the Department's Corporate Partnership program and coordination of the La Salle Basketball Radio Network, which he helped form in 1996.

Beers is also an adjunct instructor in the University's Department of Communication. He is in his sixth year as an instructor of Public Speaking (Comm 150). Beers has also begun work on his Masters in Business Administration at the University.

A 1995 maxima cum laude graduate of La Salle's Department of Communication, Beers is currently working in his 13th season in professional and collegiate sports. His career began as a junior at La Salle when he secured an internship with the Philadelphia Phillies. He would continue to work in the Phillies' Video Services Department through the 1996 season and has since built an exceptional resume as a play-by-play broadcaster for the minor league affiliates of the Phillies, Cleveland Indians, Pittsburgh Pirates, Anaheim Angels, and the Kansas City Royals.

The summer of 2006 saw Beers call 20 Reading Phillies and was a fill-in as play-by-play for the WBNA's Phoenix Mercury when they played the New York Liberty at Madison Square Garden on the Mercury Radio Network.

He has worked two NCAA Men's Basketball Regional Finals (Austin, TX—2005/Washington, DC—2006) and the NCAA Men's Basketball Opening Rounds in Philadelphia in 2006.

He is a member of the College Sports Information Directors Association (Co-SIDA), East Coast Association of Colleges Sports Information Directors Association (ECAC-SIDA) and the Philadelphia Sportswriters Association.

Beers, 35, was born in Emmaus, PA, and is a veteran of the U.S. Army, in which he served six years (two in active duty) as a Cavalry Scout.

Ed Fitzpatrick returns for his third year on the LRN crew. After one season as an understudy, Fitzpatrick took over duties as Production Assistant and Courtside/Sideline Reporter on Network broadcasts and netcasts.

This will be his second full season on the microphone.

Fitzpatrick is responsible for many production elements of the network, tracking streaming traffic, writing ad copy and producing the Red Zone and Tim Miller pre-game shows for football netcasts. He also appears during the pre and post game shows, fills in as a color analyst for women's basketball games and is the eyes and ears of LRN on the field and team benches.

A senior Communication major from East Fallowfield, PA, Fitzpatrick graduated from Bishop Shanahan High.

EXPLORERS ON TV

College Sports Television (CSTV) has become the official media partner of the Atlantic 10 and owns the rights to all Atlantic 10 contests and member home games. CSTV will offer college basketball fans a substantial selection of Atlantic 10 and Explorer games. Additionally, selected Explorer games not covered on the CSTV package will appear on regional media outlets Comcast Sportnet and CN8.

In addition to producing Atlantic 10 telecasts all member schools CSTV will soon become the on-line web provider for all Atlantic 10 member school including La Salle. Upon the conversion live streaming accessibility to Explorer home games, coaches shows and audio/video features will be accessible.

THE LA SALLE BASKETBALL RADIO NETWORK

This season, ESPN920 returns as the flagship station for the La Salle Basketball Radio Network (LRN) to carry the action of each and every Explorer men's basketball game in the 2006-07 season. Born in 1997, LRN affiliates have since broadcast close to 400 Explorer basketball games in and back to Philadelphia as well as the world via the internet.

This year, in concert with the Atlantic 10 Conference's partnership with College Sports Television (CSTV), plans are underway to stream live audio and full-scaled video coverage on a refurbished and new-look GoExplorers.com through CSTV Online.

Last impressions

La Salle seniors finally enjoying best of times

BOB COONEY

The time runs out on the college basketball career, reflection on those storied moments. As with any player, the memories will linger, smiles for the past games, friends and things to do.

But La Salle's Lewis Padgett, Steven Smith and Jeremiah Thomas have traveled a very different road from most college players.

They will not play with a Fatigue beautiful sign.

They will not be labeled by any of the three times during their time at La

Salle as players who have seen Clay but played their time at success in the way that he they do," according to their coach, who is reers. Not to mention Smith is a La Salle senior, and he is each of their first years.

Smith and Thomas don't look quite like the players who very early on their college experience.

Think again.

"It's all been worthwhile," Paddgett said. "Through all the rough times we've had

I think it's made us more mature

as people. And now we're having some success, so we're happy to give back to the whole thing

a happy ending."

The success is an achievement in the Atlantic 10. This group of players is La Salle's first since 1992-93. In the Atlantic 10, La Salle is in the position to gain a first round

in the upcoming conference tournament.

Tomorrow night, they'll travel to South-Central College in Washington, D.C.

The three seniors

will be the last to play for La Salle

in the Atlantic 10

conference.

They will be the last to play for

La Salle in the Atlantic 10

conference.

He's effective shot-blocker and rebounder and occasionally extra points of offense for his lowprofile defense.

Quite simply Smith is one of the best to put on a La Salle uniform. He's finished with close to 2,000 points and 100 rebounds.

A freshman camp last year

many talking of him having carriers, but the 6'6 forward wanted to come back. He could be a first-round pick in June's draft.

Thomas, who went over the

1,000-point mark earlier this season, told people with his way determinator on the court. The 6-6 guard's desire to win wouldn't be overlooked.

"Bernard is the vocal leader of the team," Smith said. "When we try to come out of the lockdown, I try to lead the way. For example, I try to lead the way into the paint. I try to lead the way into the paint. I try to lead

the way into the paint. I try to lead the way into the paint. I try to lead the way into the paint. I try to lead the way into

try to lead the way into the

paint. I try to lead the way into the paint. I try to lead the way into the paint. I try to lead the way into the paint. I try to lead

the way into the paint. I try to motor alongside (Chris) Bosh and (Charlie) Villanueva.

At the beginning of this season Bargnani was playing only 10 to 15 minutes off the bench, but he became a starter midway through the year and is averaging 11.9 points,

5.5 rebounds and an Italian league-leading

1.3 blocks per game in just 22 minutes.

He is, scouts say, well-prepared for the rigors of the NBA schedule. In addition to adding 20 pounds to his seven-foot,

248-pound frame, Bargnani has played in close to 100 professional, regular-season and tournament games this year. Being a marked man has further steeled him. At the end of a crucial game in March against powerhouse

Benetton Bologna, ex-Chicago Bulls centralizer Bargnani outlasted Bargnani to drive to the basket. At his teammates praised his toughness and determined tenaciousness. Bargnani got to his feet, rubbed his sore and made two clutch free throws. Op-ping fans have also played rough with him, but a return trip home to Rome for the 2006 Italian season, Bargnani was hit by 10,000 fans mugging.

For the moment,

Bargnani is just a player for the

we all worked very hard

against some pro players or college players. And I

Slavko coming back, try to be good to the team.
